Dear J.B.,

Matthew tells us about a time when John sent some of his disciples to Jesus to ask him directly, "Are you the one or should we wait for another?" Jesus did not give them a simple "yes" or "no" response. He said, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them."

I hope that each time I write to you, you think of the miracles we have seen happening in Nicaragua through our shared ministry. Many children who were blind have had their sight restored. Currently, there are five students who are preparing for surgery that doctors tell us will restore their ability to see! I remember a little boy in the Matagalpa region of Nicaragua who was not able to hear before we were able to find a sponsor for a critical surgery which restored his hearing and Ervin, the young man whose photograph I shared with you last fall, who is learning to walk thanks to the support of a Rainbow Network partner!

I believe that Jesus is the one whom God sent and we are all proud to be partners with Jesus in continuing his ministry of bringing good news to the poor. The blind see, the lame walk, the deaf hear and the poor have good news brought to them. You just can't get much closer to the gospel of Christ than being a part of that!

Sincerely,
Keith Jaspers
