THE HUGHES FAMILY

George and Joyce Hughes, along with their family, are dedicated Christians that have been delivering food, clothing, medical supplies and Bibles to those in need along the Rio Grande since 1992. After meeting the Hughes in 2007, Hunger Plus, Inc. started providing them with food and humanitarian supplies to distribute among the needy that they serve.

It is important for you to know before reading their story that George and Joyce receive no paycheck for their work, they pay their own expenses, and travel on their personal time because they believe in helping the needy so strongly. Please read the letter they wrote to Hunger Plus, Inc., a letter from a family humbled by the experience of helping those less fortunate....

"I praise the Lord for all he is doing. God has blessed me and my family by allowing us to give food, clothes, medical supplies and Bibles to those in need. In 1992, we began hauling supplies to Mexico and over the years many groups and people have helped us provide for the needy. One of these groups is Hunger Plus. In 2008, we were able to haul more supplies than ever before. We take supplies to Quemaro, TX – Cornerstone Children's Ranch and Hungry Kids International; Del Rio – Faith Mission & Bible Way Christian School; Terlingua, TX – missions and food distribution areas; Presidio, TX – Pastors of Churches in Texas and Mexico and a physician doing Mission work; Faben, TX – Crossing the Border Ministries and Bridge Builder Church (where most of the Hunger Plus supplies are donated); El Paso, TX - Hands of Luke, soup kitchens, Proven Love, rescue missions, Victory in Jesus, rehabs and orphanages; Anthony, NM – Helping Hands Ministries; Las Cruces, NM – churches and street ministries; Albuquerque, NM – Street ministries; Belen, NM – Boys Ranch; Clovis, NM – Lighthouse Mission; and Amarillo, TX – Faith City Mission and other ministries as needs arise.

I praise the Lord and thank all those who have been a part in this.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble. Psalm 41:1
Who so stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he shall cry himself, but shall not be heard. Proverbs 21:13

Pulling for Jesus,
Joyce and George Hughes"
